Whitehall, April 26, 1755.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on Wednesday the 12th of March last, betwixt Eight and Nine in the Evening, five Men broke into the House of Sir Hervey Elwes, Bart. at Stoke in Suffolk, and, by Threats, did oblige him to shew them where his Money was, which they carried away, to the Amount of about One Thousand Pounds, and did wound one of his Servants; they were all armed with Pistols and Cutlasses, shabbily dressed; one was a tall thin Man booted; two were short thin Men without Boots; these three had Masks on the whole Time; one of the other two was about forty Years of Age, full faced, fresh coloured, his Complexion inclined to fair, thick set, about five Feet four Inches high, had no Mask on for some Time, was without Boots; the other was thin bodied, long visaged, of a pale Complexion, believed to have a Scar on the lower Part of his Face, appeared to be about Thirty, five Feet five Inches high, booted, he had no Mask on for some Time: It is believed that a Sixth stood without, the Servant, that was attacked at the Stable, seeing a Man there, who, he thinks was not amongst those that came into the House, and he heard one say, that he would stand at the Hall Door: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. T. ROBINSON.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the said Sir Hervey Elwes, Bart. does hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, to any Person who shall discover his Accomplice, or Accomplices in the said Robbery, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; to be paid by me John Elwes, Esq; of Great Marlborough Street. John Elwes.

General Post-Office, April 22, 1755.

Whereas the Post-Boy, carrying the Derby Mail, that was dispatched from this Office on Saturday the 19th Instant, was attack'd between Market Harborough and Kibworth, on Sunday Night the 20th Instant, about Eleven o'Clock, by two Men on Foot, who seized on his Horse's Bridle, and led him to an Hedge about one hundred Yards distant from the Road, where they took off, and rifled the Mail, and took out and carried off the following Bags, viz.

Leicester,	Nottingham,
Loughborough,	Derby and Ashbourn.

The Boy saith, one of the Robbers was a middle-sized thin Man, and the other a fat jolly tall Man: The middle sized Man had on a light colour'd Coat, and wore his own Hair, which was black, and Part of it platted and pulled over his Face, and his Hat slouched before, and was seemingly a genteel Man. The fat jolly tall Man had on a grey Wigg and Snuff colour'd Coat, and his Hat slouched before. After the Robbery they immediately mounted their Horses, which were tied to the abovementioned Hedge, and rode with full Speed towards Harborough. The Boy adds, that one of the Horses was of a grey Colour, and the other a darkish Colour.

This is therefore to give Notice, that whosoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, both or either of them who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending Highwaymen, or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice, or knowing of this Robbery, shall make Discovery whereby either or both of the Persons, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of either or both of the said Robbers, be entitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post Master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.
